SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The computer printout entitled Bound To Please.doc is classified as:
Objectionable.

The computer printout contains a fictional story explicitly describing a man using coercion to compel women to participate in sexual conduct in a home invasion scenario.

The publication supports the use of coercion in association with sexual conduct and legitimises this by focusing on the fear that the intruder engenders in the women as the prime element of arousal.

The computer printout meets criteria under s3(2)(b) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993, and is therefore deemed to be objectionable. A classification of "objectionable" places a limit on the right to the freedom of expression as set out in s14 of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, in relation to this publication, the classification is a reasonable limit prescribed by law that can be demonstrably justified in a free and democratic society.
